

WELCOME AT TROX!

TROX ensures safe, energy-efficient and environmentally compatible products and systems in the fields of indoor air conditioning and ventilation.

In close cooperation with its customers, TROX develops needs-based solutions and sustainable concepts that help to increase the well-being of people, protect life and our environment.

LEARN MORE ABOUT US.

As an innovative and foundation-managed company, we are looking for motivated employees who, together with us, can contribute their knowledge, experience and their ideas to the success of our company and help to shape our international challenges.

Located in Neukirchen-Vluyn in the Lower Rhine region, our headoffice impresses with affordable living space and its proximity to major cities such as Düsseldorf, Duisburg and Essen.

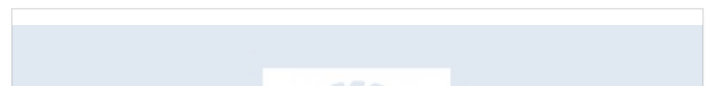

Our production facilities in Anholt in the Münsterland region and Goch are located in an attractive border region with the Netherlands.
